  - (2) also, to fail to make reasonable accommodation to the known physical or mental limitations of an otherwise qualified handicapped employee;
  - (3) also, to fail to make reasonable accommodation to the religious observance or practice of any employee or prospective employee unless the employer can demonstrate that the accommodation would impose an undue hardship on the conduct of the employer's business;
  - (4) also, to make, print or publish, or cause to be made, printed or published any notice, statement, or advertisement with respect to employment that indicates a preference, limitation, specification or discrimination based on race, sex, religion, color, national origin or handicap;
  - (5) the following practices are not included in the meaning of "discrimination":
    - (a) for any not-for-profit association, incorporated or otherwise, organized exclusively for fraternal or religious purposes, to devote its resources to its own religion or denomination, or to give employment preference to its own members,

- c. The term "obstruct" means and includes the actions of any person knowingly obstructing the fair and lawful enforcement of this Article of this Chapter by coercing or intimidating any complainant or prospective complainant, or any witness to any act of discrimination as defined herein, after such person has received actual notice of a discrimination charge or has been served notice of a complaint filed.
- d. The term "retaliate" means and includes the actions of any person in discriminating against any other person with regard to, or denying any other person access to or opportunities in employment, because any such other person has opposed any practice made unlawful by this Article of this Chapter, or because such other person has made a charge, testified, assisted or participated in any manner in an investigation, proceeding, or hearing under this Article of this Chapter.

If it is a matter over which the Metropolitan Human Relations Commission has no jurisdiction, the Board of Public Works shall conduct a hearing to determine whether there has been a breach of this Article of this Chapter. In so doing, the Board may call upon the Commission for consultation.

15-13-4 Remedies. Upon finding that a contractor or sub-contractor or any person acting on behalf of such contractor or subcontractor has violated a provision or provisions of this Article of this Chapter, whether discriminating, obstructing, retaliating, or otherwise, the Board of Works may:

- a. Deduct from the amount payable to the contractor by the City of Fort Wayne under such contract a penalty of no less than ten dollars ($10.00) per day, per violation, nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) per day, per violation.
